

Southeast Texas Dulcimer Friends

Meeting the second Saturday of each month
Rosdale Baptist Church, 7110 Concord Road, Beaumont, Texas
1:30 – until

March 2012

From the Pres:

I'm feeling thankful today. We are so richly blessed.

O give thanks unto the LORD, for he is good: for his mercy endureth forever. (Psalms 107:1)

Among other things, I'm thankful for my salvation, my family, my home, my church family, my job, my country, my neighborhood, my shiny new red truck, my music...

And, my friends in the dulcimer club. You folks are like family.

Thank you for your support. I'm looking forward to our next meeting already.

Let's jam!

Steve Clark

Dulci-News:

The Lone Dulcimer Club Festival will be held in Glen Rose, TX on Mother's Day weekend. If you are in planning on being there and will be camping, you need to call in your reservation. The city of Glen Rose bought the park and now accept reservations.

We enjoyed the play at the Vidor Rehab Center and the Village Creek Rehab Center. After the Vidor play we were treated by Willie Mae and Robert Smith to a gumbo dinner with real banana pudding. Fantastic!

Those who attended the fish fry and play at St. Michael's Catholic Church in Jasper has a great time jamming with the Rayburn bunch and others. The Cypress Glen play was a little difficult since we had to compete against the noise in the kitchen area. We were able to hear each other better when we played for the Alzheimer group since we could hear each other there.

Hazel's Notes

Reminder: Be sure that your dulcimer is set to DGD. I will be teaching at least two songs in that tuning.

You might be a redneck if...

Your truck/car horn plays the A part of "Old Joe Clark."
